Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1768.

BOSTON, AUGUST 22.

ON Monday the 15th Inſt. the Anniverſary of the ever-memorable FOURTEENTH of AUGUST, was celebrated by the SONS OF LIBERTY in this Town, with extraordinary Feſtivity. At the Dawn, the Britiſh Flag was diſplayed on the Tree of Liberty, and a Diſcharge of fourteen Cannon, ranged under the venerable Elm, ſaluted the joyous Day. At Eleven o'Clock, a very large Company of the principal Gentlemen and reſpectable Inhabitants of the Town, met at the Hall under the Tree, while the Streets were crouded with a Concourſe of People of all Ranks, public Notice having been given of the intended Celebration. The Muſic began at high Noon, performed on various Inſtruments, joined with Voices; and concluding with the univerſally admired American Song of Liberty, the Grandeur of its Sentiment, and the eaſy Flow of its Numbers, together with an exquiſite Harmony of Sound, afforded a ſublime Entertainment to a numerous Audience, fraught with a noble Ardour in the Cauſe of Freedom: The Song was clos'd with the Diſcharge of Cannon and a Shout of Joy; at the ſame time the Windows of the neighbouring Houſes, were adorned with a brilliant Appearance of the fair Daughters of Liberty, who teſtified their Approbation by Smiles of Satisfaction. The following Toaſts ſucceeded, viz.

1. Our rightful Sovereign GEORGE the Third.
2. The Queen, Prince of Wales, and the reſt of the Royal Family.
3. The Sons of Liberty throughout the World.
4. The glorious Adminiſtration of 1766.
5. A perpetual Union of Great-Britain and her Colonies, upon the immutable Principles of Juſtice and Equity.
6. May the ſiniſter Deſigns of Oppreſſors, both in Great-Britain and America, be for ever defeated.
7. May the common Rights of Mankind be eſtabliſhed on the Ruin of all their Enemies.
8. Paſchal Paoli and his brave Corſicans. May they never want the Support of the Friends of Liberty.
9. The memorable 14th of Auguſt, 1765.
10. Magna Charta, and the Bill of Rights.
11. A ſpeedy Repeal of unconſtitutional Acts of Parliament, and a final Removal of illegal and oppreſſive officers.
12. The FARMER.
13. JOHN WILKES, Eſqj and all independant Members of the Britiſh Parliament.
14. The glorious NINETY-TWO, who defended the Rights of AMERICA, uninfluenced by the Mandates of a Miniſter, and undaunted by the Threats of a Governor.

Which being finiſhed, the French Horns ſounded; and after another Diſcharge of the Cannon, compleating the Number NINETY-TWO, the Gentlemen in their Carriages, repair'd to the Greyhound Tavern in Roxbury, where a frugal and elegant Entertainment was provided. The Muſic played during the Repaſt: After which the following Toaſts were given out, and the repeated Diſcharge of Cannon ſpoke the general Aſſent.

35. Strong Halters, firm Blocks and ſharp Axes, to all ſuch as reſpectively deſerve either of them.
36. Scalping Savages let looſe in Tribes rather than Legions of Placemen, Penſioners and Walkerizing Dragoons!
37. The Amputation of any Limb, if it be neceſſary to preſerve the Body Politic from Perdition!
38. The oppreſſed and diſtreſſed foreign Proteſtants!

45. Every Man under his own Vine! under his own Fig-Tree! None to make us afraid: And let all the People ſay, AMEN.

Upon this happy Occaſion, the whole Company, with the Approbation of their Brethren in Roxbury, conſecrated a Tree in the Vicinity, under the Shade of which on ſome future Anniverſary, they may commemorate the Day, which ſhall liberate AMERICA from her preſent Oppreſſion! Then making an agreeable Excurſion round Jamaica Pond, in which Excurſion they received the kind Salutation of a Friend to the Cauſe, by the Diſcharge of Cannon. At Six o'Clock they returned to Town; and paſſing in ſlow and orderly Proceſſion thro' the principal Streets, and round the State-Houſe, they retired to their reſpective Dwellings.—— It is allowed that this Cavalcade ſurpaſſed all that has ever been ſeen in America——The Joy of the Day was manly, and an uninterrupted Regularity preſided thro' the whole.

From the SHERBURNE MERCURY, June 13.

WE cannot but flatter ourſelves, that moſt of the readers of our paper are ſuch Friends to Liberty, that they will receive with the moſt heart-felt pleaſure the news we give them this week, that Mr. Wilkes, the Great Aſſertor of the Liberties of this Country, is now reſtored to all the rights and privileges of it, of which he has been long deprived by an ILLEGAL proceeding—And it is but a juſt debt of gratitude to ſay, that the people owe more to him, than to all or any of the patriots of the preſent times. Beſides the total overthrow of that arbitrary and dangerous practice to public Liberty, GENERAL WARRANTS, the ſpirit, intrepidity, and firmneſs, with which he declares againſt a Lord Chief Juſtice, for having altered a record at his chambers, will, there is reaſon to think, have ſuch an effect, that it will be never attempted again; which cannot but be wiſhed for. And the eyes of the people are ſo opened to their juſt rights, that there is much likelihood that all the ſlaviſh remains among us of Star-Chamber proceedings will be totally aboliſhed.—— Mr. Bingley, who has lately been ſerved with an attachment for publiſhing the North-Britain, No. 50, when he appeared in the Court of King's-Bench on Tueſday laſt, to ſhew cauſe why an attachment ſhould not be iſſued againſt him, intended to make a defence himſelf, Council having declined undertaking to make it for him; but he was not permitted by the Court to do it: He has, however, ſince appealed to the public, by publiſhing the Defence he intended to have made in Court, in which the ſpirit of the liberty of antient Rome, even in its pureſt days of freedom, breathes forth. After aſſerting and ſhowing how the charges brought in No. 50, againſt Lord M——, are founded in FACT, he concludes, "However, my Lords, whatever my offence may be, I deſire to have it determined by a Jury of my OWN Countrymen. The favourable and glorious appeal of Engliſhmen is to GOD and their Country. To them I ſtand or fall. I ſhall REFUSE to anſwer any queſtions by way of interrogatories on ATTACHMENT. There can be no pretext for denying me a trial by Jury. The way of attachment is a STAR-CHAMBER proceſs; to which I will not ſubmit: It is UNLAWFUL; it is unprecedented in ſuch a caſe. My Lords, I am an Engliſhman, and I DEMAND, as my RIGHT, a trial by Jury."

A FRESH SUPPLY of EDWARD JOYCE's famous GREAT American BALSAM, made in Long-Iſland, ſuperior by Trial, for its Uſe and Efficacy, to any imported from Europe, is juſt received per Captain Haywood, from New-York, and to be ſold by CHARLES CROUCH, at his Printing-Office in Elliott-ſtreet, Five Shillings cheaper than any yet ſold here.

☞ The ſeveral ſurpriſing Cures that have been made, (under God) with this very famous BALSAM, both at New-York and this Province, is ſufficient to recommend it, and a Liſt of the Perſon's Names may be ſeen affixed to the Directions, and at the Printer's hereof.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 11.

The Inſtructions to the Repreſentatives of the City and County of Philadelphia, having been generally ſigned by the Freemen of ſaid City and County, were delivered on Saturday laſt to JOSEPH GALLOWAY, and JAMES PEMBERTON, Eſquires, to be by them communicated to their Brethren, and are as follow.

Philadelphia, July 30, 1768.

To the REPRESENTATIVES of the FREEMEN of the City and County of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN,

WE obſerve that Duties for the ſole and expreſs Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue, have been lately impoſed by Acts of Parliament, upon ſeveral Articles of Commerce, imported into theſe Colonies. This we conſider as an Infringement of our natural and conſtitutional Rights: It is a Taxation of us by Perſons who do not, and cannot repreſent us. Such a Taxation, therefore, takes away our Money without our Conſent, and if the Parliament can do this legally, and of Right, it muſt follow, of undeniable Conſequence, that we have no Property, and that all we poſſeſs belongs to others, whoſe ſovereign Pleaſure muſt determine, how long we ſhall be indulged in the Uſe of thoſe Things, which our own Labours, and our own Cares, have acquired and ſaved.

A Doctrine ſo deſtructive of Property, Liberty and Happineſs, we cannot but deem in the utmoſt Degree unreaſonable and unconſtitutional, and being aſſerted by ſo auguſt a Body as the Britiſh Parliament, it ſtrikes us with Surprize, Affliction and Apprehenſion; all which are greatly increaſed by the Violence of other Meaſures.

Not long ſince we beheld a Siſter Colony deprived of her Legiſlative Power, for no other Offence than for daring to exerciſe her Judgments on a Poiat confeſſedly within her own Juriſdiction; and for refuſing to put herſelf to a conſiderable Expence, in Obedience to an Act of Parliament. A Treatment ſevere to the immediate Objects of it; dangerous and alarming to others; but this we perceive is not to be the utmoſt Extent of American Servitude.

The Houſe of Repreſentatives, in the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, roufed by the common Danger, candidly and wiſely communicated their Sentiments and Proceedings to the other Aſſemblies on this Continent; it being "neceſſary that all poſſible Care ſhould be taken, that the Repreſentatives of the ſeveral Aſſemblies, upon ſo delicate a Point, ſhould harmonize with each other." This Behaviour of that truly reſpectable Houſe, ſo prudent with Regard to themſelves, ſo affectionate with Regard to other Colonies, and ſo loyal with Regard to our gracious Sovereign, is repreſented, in miniſterial Language, as a "Meaſure of moſt factious Tendency, and a flagitious Attempt to diſturb the public Peace." Nor have theſe Reproaches ſatisfied the Reſentment of the Adminiſtration. The Houſe of Repreſentatives has been required "to reſcind the Reſolution that gave Birth to the Circular Letter," and becauſe they have magnanimouſly refuſed to betray the Liberties of theſe Colonies, they have been diſſolved in an inſulting Manner. Beſides this, the Aſſembly of Maryland has been prorogued by their Governor, in Obedience to a miniſterial Order; becauſe they could not be prevailed on to "reſent and treat with Contempt" the Letter from the Speaker of the Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay.

Theſe Meaſures excite in our Minds the ſtrongeſt Senſe of PUBLIC DANGER. On the one Hand, we hear Claims ſet up deſtructive to our Rights, on the other Threatnings uttered, if we offer to oppoſe thoſe Claims. But as no miniſterial Rhetoric can perſuade us that a Denial of the Authority of Parliament, in Caſes pernicious to Liberty, is to "ſubvert the Principles of the Conſtitution," or that to be deeply ſenſible of Oppreſſions, humbly to complain of them, and peaceably (though jointly) to ſeek Redreſs of them, is a "factious and flagitious Attempt to diſturb the public Peace;" we therefore do, in the moſt earneſt Manner, call upon you to exert yourſelves at the next Meeting of Aſſembly, for procuring a Redreſs of our preſent Grievances; and for promoting a cordial Union in Sentiments and Meaſures with the other Colonies, on which Union alone, the Happineſs of the Whole undoubtedly depends.

We recommend it to you to exert yourſelves, as ſoon as the Houſe meets, that a Petition to His Majeſty, a Memorial to the Houſe of Lords, and a Remonſtrance to the Houſe of Commons, be immediately drawn up, and tranſmitted Home. Too much Diſpatch cannot be uſed at this important Criſis; as we are fully perſuaded, that noting is ſo likely to overwhelm the Colonies with Calamities, as an Appearance of Diſunion among them. In thoſe Addreſſes we deſire you to expreſs, with all poſſible Force of Language, our Loyalty to His Majeſty, our firm Attachment to the Britiſh Conſtitution, and our Affection to the People of the Parent Country. That we value and revere the Connection between her and us above every Thing but Religion and Liberty, that we know it is the Band of Peace and Proſperity, that, influenced by theſe Sentiments, we ever have been, are, and always ſhall be ready and willing, upon every juſt Occaſion, to demonſtrate our Loyalty and Duty, by every Method in our Power. But, with equal Zeal and Firmneſs, are immoveably reſolved to aſſert and maintain the ineſtimable Rights and Liberties given to us by GOD, and confirmed to us by the Conſtitution.

BOSTON, AUGUST 29.

A letter from Halifax mentions, that the troops from Louiſbourg, St. John's, and the other out-poſts, were arrived there, and with thoſe which were there before, lay in readineſs to embark, and that it was currently reported they were deſtined for this place.

Yeſterday a gentleman in this town had a child baptiſed at one of the North-churches by the name of Oliver Cromwell:—The ſame gentleman, about two years ſince, had another of his children chriſtened by the name of John Wilkes.

We hear that a gentleman in the country lately had a child baptiſed by the name of James Otis.

September 5. We hear there are Letters in Town, received by the Packet, which mention that it was tho't American Affairs would ſoon take a more favourable turn.

NEW-PORT, (Rhode-Iſland) AUGUST 29.

The Merchants and Traders of this Town are deſired to meet, at the Court-Houſe, on Wedneſday next, at three o'Clock in the Afternoon, to take into Conſideration a Letter on the preſent Embarraſments of Trade; which was received, by the laſt Poſt from "a Committee appointed by the Merchants in Boſton, to correſpond with the Merchants in the other Colonies, relative to the Embarraſments the Trade may at any Time labour under;" and to take ſuch Meaſures thereon as ſhall be thought proper.

Mr. CROUCH,

When the Terrors of the Stamp Act had ſilenced every other PRESS among us, you honeſtly and like a good Citizen opened yours, and thereby became a conſiderable Inſtrument in the Hand of GOD, in bringing about the happy Change of Meaſures that followed. This has induced me to offer you the incloſed Paper, not doubting that you will readily print it, if you think it will have any good Effect.

I am, Your humble Servant,

WATEREE, Sept. 15, 1768. RUSTICUS.

WHEN ſo many Writers in the neighbouring Provinces daily appear in Behalf of Liberty and of their Country, 'tis ſurpriſing that even ſo important an Event as a General Election, at this moſt critical Conjuncture, ſhould not have induced ſome Perſon of Ability in this Place to offer his Opinion and Advice to his Countrymen. Had any of us a Cauſe to be tried at the next Court, by the Determination of which, one half of our Eſtates might be loſt, how arduous ſhould we be to enquire into the Characters of the Perſons who were to decide it? how induſtrious to procure the ableſt Council? and yet, when we are to chooſe, perhaps for the laſt Time, Perſons who are for us, and in our Stead, to defend and protect not a Part, nor even the Whole of our Property, but our Liberty, and that of our Poſterity, now to be irretrievably loſt or ſecured forever; how eaſy, how languid, do we appear, or if we do make any Efforts, they are rather to procure private or local, than the Public Advantage. Theſe Conſiderations have prevailed on me to publiſh this Paper. Happy ſhall I think myſelf ſhould it in anywiſe be uſeful, content ſhould it ſink into that Oblivion, which my Diſtance from Town, and conſequent Want of Information, may make it merit. Arguments to prove the Importance of the preſent Criſis would be impertinent. Who is ignorant that Acts of Parliament, taking away our beſt and deareſt Privileges of Trial by Juries, of being taxed by our own Conſent only, have been paſſed lately, and do now exiſt. That a legal and conſtitutional Application of one Colony to the Reſt, to join them in the moſt dutiful and loyal Petitions to their Sovereign for Redreſs, has been treated by Miniſtry, as an Act almoſt treaſonable? That becauſe the ſucceeding Aſſembly could not be ſo intimidated as to cenſure and annul this Step of their Predeceſſors, they have been diſſolved, with Marks of the higheſt Diſpleaſure, nay, the Colony threatened with a Deprivation of any future Repreſentation in Aſſembly; and Circular Letters ſent to all the other Governors, ſo to wheedle or frighten their ſeveral Aſſemblies, as to prevent their joining in the Petition? Does any Man want to be told that every Britiſh Subject has a Right to Petition his King whenever he thinks himſelf aggrieved? or that a Denial of that very Privilege, was one of the great Offences againſt the Conſtitution, that coſt JAMES II. his Crown? Have not the News-Papers informed us that Numbers of Men of War are drawing together from all Parts to Boſton? And are not the Soldiers drawn out of the Frontier Poſts, the Defence of which was the Pretence for keeping them in America, to the Sea Coaſt, where 'tis impoſſible any Enemy can do us harm? and can we be at any loſs to gueſs the Intention of theſe Motions? or for what Service theſe Troops and Ships are intended? Can it be neceſſary to add to theſe, the very extraordinary Steps taken in London, Soldiers drawn out on every Occaſion to over-awe the People; thanks given them in the public News-Papers for murdering his Majeſty's Subjects; nay, his ſacred Name proſtituted on the melancholy Occaſion; the Star-Chamber Proceedings againſt Printers and Publiſhers of Papers, that happen to be diſliked by Adminiſtration; the new Doctrine that we are required to acknowledge, however extraordinary to common Senſe, that beſides the Allegiance we owe to our Sovereign, another is due to our Fellow-Subjects in Britain; ſo that if, of two Brothers born in England, one ſtays there, and the other comes to America, the latter becomes ipſo facto the Slave and Property of the former: An Eſtate of ancient Inheritance, without even a Shadow of Form, or Pretence of Juſtice, taken from a Nobleman of the higheſt Rank, and given to a Relation of a Court Favourite, becauſe the former dared to oppoſe the Election of the latter: Theſe Circumſtances, alarming as they appear, are not all; to our ſhame be it ſaid, that while every other Part of America is united as one Man, to ſave their Country, we have ſuffered ourſelves to be diſunited, and run into a State of Confuſion, if not of Anarchy, all probably to ſerve the Purpoſes of a few deſigning, perhaps neceſſitous Men, who ſeek for Protection from their Creditors in the public Confuſion, and who ſcruple not, "to ſet the Province in a Flame, for the Convenience of roaſting their Eggs in the Aſhes;" all theſe Things are as clear as the Light of the Sun at Noon Day. How much farther our Taſk-Maſters may chooſe to extend the Hand of Power 'tis hard to gueſs. The Nation owes we ſee a Hundred and Forty Millions; whether as the laſt Stake, we and our Children, as well as our Lands and Effects, may be ſold to the beſt Bidders, to reduce a ſmall Part of that enormous Sum, Time only can ſhew; 'tis however certain that none will bear a heavy Burthen long, when he has an acknowledged Right to lay it on the Shoulders of another; and it is equally certain, that they who have a Right to take from others any one Privilege, or one Penny of Money, without their Conſent, may take the Whole whenever they pleaſe. Perhaps it may be ſaid that when Things are in ſuch a Situation, all Oppoſition is vain, eſpecially when the great City of London ſubmits to be dragoon'd, and to have their beſt Citizens oppreſſed by the hardeſt and moſt arbitrary Methods of Proceedings in the Courts of Law, for preſuming to publiſh their Opinions of Miniſterial Management: However, my dear Countrymen, let us not deſpair, but rather double our Diligence; we have a good and gracious King, and there is a new Parliament: God be praiſed, the Houſe that laid theſe Burthens on us is at an End, their Power is over, and we may hope better Things from their Succeſſors: We have alſo many great and able Men at Home who will aſſiſt us, Men who ſee the Connection and Dependance of the Liberties of the Mother Country and the Colonies, that the former muſt fall with the latter: Let us do our Part, let us chooſe Men of Abilities and Reſolution ſufficient to aſſert our Rights; to ſet them in the cleareſt Light; to find Means to bring our Diſtreſſes to the Ear of our Sovereign; to repreſent them truly to him, cleared from all Miniſterial Miſrepreſentation; and thereby convince him that his American Subjects no leſs deſerve his Royal Favour and Protection, than any others whatſoever; when this is done, we have no Reaſon to ſuppoſe that ſo gracious, ſo juſt a King, will ſacrifice one Quarter Part of his Subjects to humour the Reſt; he will rather aſſiſt us in our Applications to the other Branches of the Legiſlature, and we may yet be happy.

I hope it will not be thought Preſumption, if I give a few Hints to my Fellow Electors, in their Choice of Repreſentatives.

Let each Elector before he gives in his Ballot, ſuppoſe that his ALL is to be left to Arbitration, upon the Points already mentioned; let him lay his Hand upon his Heart, and aſk himſelf, are the Men whoſe Names are written in this Ballot, the very Perſons I ſhould have choſen as Arbitrators in ſuch a Caſe? if ſo, he cannot err, but if not, ſurely he will of Courſe think of better Men for his Choice. The ſeveral weighty Matters that have come before the two laſt Houſes of Aſſembly, and the Behaviour of each Member upon thoſe ſeveral Occaſions, of which each of you had a Right to be informed by your Repreſentatives, will be a moſt certain Guide in your enſuing Choice. Thoſe Gentlemen who have ſupported your Rights with Fortitude and Ability, when attacked openly or inſidiouſly, by our late Governor, and by the Acts of Parliament ſo often mentioned, will doubtleſs be the Objects of your Choice. You have a Right to their Service, ſhould any of them decline it ever ſo earneſtly, they ſhould be compelled, though there be no written Law to do this; yet if they are really the Men you now want, you will find ſuch a Law imprinted in their Breaſts, they cannot deſpair of their Country, they dare not deſert her in Diſtreſs; on your Part do every Thing to make their Service as little burthenſome as poſſible; ſtrengthen their Hands with ſtrong, ample, and unanimous Inſtructions, in Relation to the grand Points which are to come before them. On the other Side, ſhould you diſcover that Members of the former Houſe, had endeavoured to ſacrifice your Rights and Liberties to the Attacks made upon them, either out of mean Compliance at one Time with a haughty and oppreſſive Governor, at another with a ridiculous Judge, or to procure Court Favour, by ſubverting and ſurrendering that ſacred Depoſite, the Privileges of their Conſtituents entruſted in their Hands, or to perplex and confuſe the Proceedings of your true Friends, when they could not otherwiſe prevent Meaſures being taken for your Service, on Matters of the higheſt Importance; it muſt be needleſs ſurely to warn you againſt the Choice of ſuch. However pompouſly they may ſound their own Praiſe, or boaſt of their own Candor and Uprightneſs; ſhould theſe Men be Men of Ability, and knowing in the Conſtitution they wiſhed to overturn, ſo that want of Judgment can't be pleaded for their Conduct, how wicked, how deteſtable, muſt they appear? One Conſideration only can enhance their Guilt, which is, ſhould they be our own Countrymen, in that Caſe, their Parricide added to their Treachery, fill up the Meaſure, and leave no adequate Name for their Crime; but ſure there can be no ſuch Men, for the Honour of America, I hope.

I muſt add a few Lines to my Friends and Neighbours on the late Diſturbances; let me beg them to conſider this Letter ſeriouſly, and tell me whether the Enemies of the Colonies could wiſh any Thing better to happen for carrying their Meaſures into Execution than the preſent Diſturbances; whether it may not be a good Pretence for calling all the Troops to protect the Towns and Settlements from them; whether at this Time they have any juſt Reaſon to complain of the Conduct of the Legiſlature; whether they have read and conſidered the Law for erecting Circuit Courts, and what are their Objections; whether they do not make theſe Objections all merely from the Information of a few among them, who perhaps only wiſh to keep other Judges away, that they may as formerly oppreſs the People at Pleaſure, as Juſtices of the Peace; laſtly, whether thoſe Gentlemen they ſeem deſirous of making Members of Aſſembly, are capable of defending their Privileges now in diſpute; have they ſufficient Knowledge of the Laws and Conſtitution of their Country, to anſwer every Objection, and to prove what we claim to be our Right. Alas, other Abilities are neceſſary for this, than ſuffice for making Speeches to us in the Woods. If any of theſe Gentlemen were Members of Aſſembly when our Liberties have been attacked, and were ſuch able Patriots, how come their Names never yet to be mentioned, as having diſtinguiſhed themſelves. To conclude, let me intreat you to conſider ſeriouſly the Neceſſity of an entire Union and Harmony at this Time, and I can have no doubt that all Tumult will ceaſe on your Part, and there can be no Room to doubt the Governor will do his, to bury every Thing that has been done in utter Oblivion.

Mr. CROUCH,

HAVING this Day, the Twenty-third of September, been reprimanded by a Gentleman of the firſt Note among thoſe of the Faculty, before a Number of Gentlemen then preſent on a Coroner's Inqueſt at Mr. GREY's, for my making uſe of the Terms Sphacelus and Sphacelated, in order to denote the higheſt Degree of a Gangrena or Mortification; ſaid Gentlemen ſaying thoſe Terms to be improper, and only applicable to the Bones: Give me Leave, SIR, to make uſe of your PRESS, to beg the Gentlemen then preſent, to inſpect CHAMBERS's Dictionary, or any other whatever, that they may not be influenced (as People too often are) by an Authority aſſumed without Ground: And although I might have been as excuſable for expreſſing myſelf improperly in Engliſh, as the Gentleman can poſſibly be for having forgot the Signification of ſo trivial Terms in his Art as Spacelus and Caries, (this latter, and not the former, being intended to ſignify a Diſeaſe of the Bones, as I then did reply) the Gentleman's Aſſertion having been made in the Preſence of ſo many Gentlemen, with Obſtinacy and an affected Authority, I find myſelf obliged, though reluctant, to vindicate my Expreſſion in this public Manner.

If any Gentleman's ipſe dixit is prevalent enough to oppoſe the Nature of Things, ſo far as to overthrow the very Signification which Words have bore hitherto, I muſt be ready for the future to take ſuch Gentleman's Opinion as a Rule, and think ſubmiſſively, he is intitled to make others ſpeak his own Language.

I am, SIR, Your very humble Servant,

JOHN DE LAHOWE.

JOHN CHAMPNEYS,

FOLLOWS the FACTORAGE BUSINESS by himſelf, and hopes for the Continuance of the Favours of his Friends, as he will endeavour to give Satisfaction to all who may pleaſe to employ him; he alſo hopes for the Continuance of thoſe Gentlemen's Cuſtom, who have had their Buſineſs done at the Wharf, and they may depend on the ſame Diligence and conſtant Attendance as formerly. 6m.

To the Electors of St. John's Parish, Colleton County.

GENTLEMEN,

THIS Addreſs is not dictated either by Preſumption or Diffidence, but ſprings ſolely from that Deference which the repeated Favours I have received at your Hands require from me.

I have not the Vanity to aſſume any Merit from my Conduct in Aſſembly; yet I can with Truth ſay in Vindication of it, that it has been directed by my Judgment, founded upon the beſt Ideas of the Conſtitution I have, with ſome Induſtry, been able to form. For this Reaſon, and from the frequent Approbation of the Pariſh, I might, with ſome Colour, flatter myſelf with an Expectation of ſtill continuing to be the Object of your Choice at the enſuing Election: Nor will I ſo far take Blame to myſelf, as to ſuſpect that I have incurred your Diſpleaſure, by making an unſeconded Motion for erecting a Statue in Honour of his Majeſty, as an expreſſive Teſtimony of our Loyalty; and that, not in Excluſion of, but in Preference only, to Mr. Pitt's: A Name to which I give no Epithets: Your Opinion of his Behaviour that drew upon him the Rebuke of Lord Granville; of his adviſing (ſo powerfully could a Partiality to the Gratis Dictum of his Relation operate) the Confirmation of a Suſpenſion without a Hearing, which, without a Hearing, and without any Communication to the Council, had before taken Place, and the Charge concealed to this very Day; of his Syſtem of Politics in Relation to Hanover, and German Troops, at different Periods of Time; of his Promiſes, not only not performed, but in the Zenith of his Power not ſo much as attempted to be performed, to mend the Conſtitution by a more equal Repreſentation of the Commons of Great-Britain, &c. will create you no Difficulty in affixing ſuch as are ſuitable.

Whatever your Sentiments are, I ſhould ſubmit myſelf to your Determination upon this Occaſion with the utmoſt Satisfaction. Your Service is an Honour I have always held in the higheſt Eſtimation, and the Senſe of it I ſhall with Gratitude carry to my Grave.

Under theſe Impreſſions I ſhould be altogether unpardonable if, by my Silence, I ſhould be the Means of giving you any unneceſſary Trouble. It is therefore incumbent upon me to make known my Deſire that you would transfer your kind Intentions to ſome other Gentleman in my Room; ſince a Variety of Circumſtances have occurred that make it impoſſible for me to give that unwearied and conſcientious Attendance, without which it is obvious, the Duties of ſuch a Station muſt be imperfectly exerciſed, your reaſonable Expectations moſt likely prove abortive, and your juſt Rights but precariouſly preſerved.

In no Event can I forget my Obligations to you, or decline any good Offices my humble Situation in Life may enable me to render you.

September 15, 1768. WILLIAM WRAGG.
